REINSTATEMENT INFORMATION

General Information

The Office of International Students and Programs (OISP) assists admitted applicants and current students with applications for reinstatement to F-1 immigration status. Reinstatement applications typically take three to five months to be processed by US Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). Processing estimates available at https://egov.uscis.gov/cris/ptIntlIntro.do

An F-1 student who has overstayed his or her authorized period of stay or has otherwise failed to maintain F-1 student status may be reinstated to lawful F-1 status at the discretion of USCIS. To be eligible for reinstatement, a student in terminated F-1 status must:

1. Establish to the satisfaction of USCIS that the violation of status resulted from circumstance beyond the student’s control or that the failure to receive reinstatement to lawful F-1 status would result in extreme hardship to the student;
2. Is currently pursuing or intending to pursue, a full course of study at the school which issued the Form I-20;
3. Has not engaged in unauthorized employment; and
4. Is not deportable on any ground other than section 241 (a)(1)(B) or (c)(i) of the ACT 9 overstaying of failing to maintain status) 8 CFR 214.2 (f)(16)(i)

Generally, students who have been out of status for 5 months or more must travel outside the US to reinstate to F-1 status. Applications to USCIS will be denied, and application fees will not be refunded.

Reinstating your status in the United States does not give you a new visa. Visas are only used for entering the United States and can only be obtained outside of the United States at a U.S. Embassy or Consulate.

Application Procedure
Submit the required materials to OISP for review and schedule an appointment with an international student advisor. During this appointment, the advisor will review the application and generate the I-20 that will be submitted with the application.

To be eligible for reinstatement, you must be able to register for classes (no balance)

What Happens Next?
The applicant will be notified by USCIS when the application is received and when it is processed. Applicants may receive a Request For Evidence (RFE) from USCIS; if so, contact OISP for guidance on responding. Responses not received before the stated RFE deadline will result in a denial of reinstatement. Applicants are responsible for notifying OISP of USCIS’s decision about the reinstatement and are required to maintain enrollment in classes. Failure to maintain enrollment can result in termination of the F-1 status. Terminations and reinstatement can impact F-1 benefits, such as work authorization; consult OISP for more information.

Mailing Instructions
We recommend to use services with the possibility to track mail in order to have proof of your submission. The package must arrive at the US Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) center less than 30 days after the I-20 is generated and signed; if not, the application will be denied.

All Ohio applicants should mail their application package to the USCIS Dallas Lockbox facility.
